NO 'WET' SEEPAGE FROM PLATFORM OF EITHER PARTY

Even Democrats Afraid to Fight Prohibition.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., May 6.—(Special.)—"Wet" hopes to obtain a plank on the Democratic and Republican national platforms favoring light wines and beer have gone glimmering, according to information percolating from the headquarters of both parties today.

There has been a checking up of prospective "wet" strength by Republican and Democratic leaders within the last week. It transpires, with the result that the foes of prohibition have been advised of the hopelessness of their cause so far as the presidential contest is concerned.

Officials of the Democratic national committee made an unusually careful canvass, for the reason that both Gov. Edwards of New Jersey and Gov. Cox of Ohio have been figuring as presidential possibilities favorable to the resurrection of beer.

Warned to "Lay Off."
It was the Democratic convention which was looked to chiefly by the "wets." The Democratic checkup showed that only sixteen of the fifty-six members of the Democratic committee at San Francisco would be in favor of a "wet" plank, if they represent the prevailing sentiment of their states. It is understood that as a result of the canvasses of the Democratic national committee, who will be the temporary chairman, will refrain from striking any keynote favorable to the "wets." Democratic leaders have also warned the prohibitionists to "lay off," warning them that if they continue they surely will spur the prohibitionists to force through a strong "dry" plank.

Hope to Silence W. J. B.
The Democratic chieftains here hope that by putting the snubbers on the "wets," William Jennings Bryan can be persuaded to abandon his intention to fight for a plank strongly indorsing the eighteenth amendment and enforcement thereof. Silence on the liquor issue is ardently desired by the Democratic leaders.

The canvass by Republican leaders showed that the "wets" would be even weaker at Chicago than at San Francisco.

The prospect, therefore, is that the advocates of light wines and beer will transfer their endeavors to the congressional campaign, seeking to elect a congress which will modify the definition of intoxicating liquor. It will be a "wet" landslide to win the house, and with only one-third of the senators to be elected the "wets" can scarcely hope for a friendly senate.

Says Prohibition is Safe.
The federal prohibition law is a success," said Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, today. "Its friends have not been as active as its enemies recently because they assumed that all law-abiding citizens would obey the constitution and laws. The same majorities that won national prohibition will be increased if necessary."

Prohibition is under fire, but it will come out unscathed. Failure because of non-enforcement is the cry of those who recently claimed the law was so drastic it prevented the securing of liquor even for legitimate purposes. Who is responsible for liquor law violations? The lawless liquor dealers themselves are primarily responsible. Certain wet organizations and wet papers are to blame if they claim such violations and will not report them to the officers whose duty it is to enforce the law. Lawbreakers are few and those who encourage them by proclaiming that the law cannot be enforced are almost as bad as the lawbreakers themselves."

Naming Democrats Mildly "Wet."
New Haven, Conn., May 6.—Revision of the Volstead act and so as to permit the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines was favored by the Democratic state convention today. A recommendation of the state central committee that the Connecticut delegation to San Francisco be instructed to vote as a unit was rejected.

FAMOUS MEMBER OF THE CHAMBER DEAD IN ITALY

ROME, May 6.—Leonida Bissolati-Bergamaschi, Socialist member of the chamber of deputies, died today. Some time ago he underwent an operation and recently was stricken with pneumonia.

Signor Bissolati-Bergamaschi, who was the leader of the Reform Socialists, for many years had been a prominent figure in Italian politics. He always was violently patriotic and worked for many years for a united and prosperous Italy.

During the late war, being an ardent Alpine climber, he joined the army as a sergeant of the Alpine troops and was wounded in one of the mountain encounters with the Austrians. For his brave conduct as a soldier he was awarded the silver medal of the army.

16 FAT WOMEN CUT 101 POUNDS FROM WEIGHT

Dr. Robertson's First Class Celebrates Loss.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Just one week yesterday in the weight reducing contest between Dr. John Dill Robertson's "wets" and "drys" women and my "will never be fat again" men.

Just one week before they were weighed on the doctor's scales and found wanting to the amount of sixty pounds to sixteen persons. Twenty-four new candidates were taken on that day after their first week of reduction which ended yesterday. The total amount lost in feminine poundage by the entire forty was 158½. Of this amount 101½ pounds was lost from the persons of the original sixteen, with whom we are particularly interested because they are the opponents of my twenty-five men.

Women Enjoy Selves.
The women had a grand time yesterday morning comparing notes on pounds and diets and gym work.

Then the doctor gave them a little talk on the virtue of abstinence as it is applied to the stomach and dismissed the "girls" with the admonition that they let not their appetites overcome 'em.

Miss Nellie Leonard, star of the Robertson squad, showed a loss from 323 to 312½ pounds. She wasn't at all satisfied, which is likely the reason Nellie is the star pupil. If she were satisfied—she'd slip up on a soda or a box of chocolates when no one was looking.

"Beside," says Nellie, "it's going to take a couple eleven pounds to make me a slender young thing."

Miss Lillian Hurwitz found herself lighter by 7½ pounds, and looks as rosy and happy as can be.

"I'm only afraid they won't keep this up long enough," she confided to me.

How It Feels.
Mrs. Susie Jones says if you don't believe that five pounds is anything to lose just try carrying a five pound weight around all day and when you feel it down you'll realize what I feel like.

It being ladies' day yesterday, you see I must be polite for my men's sake and remain modestly in the background—but we won't stay there long. We're going to spring a surprise on you and show just what really can be accomplished in the way of reducing.

On Sunday morning at Dr. Robertson's going to give a talk on nutrition to the Home Nursing School at Woods theater, the address to be short in order that everybody present may start at 12 o'clock on a couple of miles hike, to which everybody present and everybody else in Chicago is hereby invited by the doctor to walk.

"GUILTY," PLEA OF "BLUEBEARD" TO MURDER CHARGE
Los Angeles, Cal., May 6.—Walter Andrew Watson pleaded guilty today to a county grand jury indictment charging him with murder in the first degree for the killing of Nina Lee Deloney. Sentence was set for Monday. In the meantime Watson will be examined by two physicians to be named by the court, on his own initiative, to determine his mental competence.

Prosecutor Thomas Lee Woolwine declined to say whether he will follow the terms of the alleged agreement by which Watson, in consideration of making a confession, is to be given life imprisonment instead of the death penalty.

SPEEDING AUTOS STAGE GUN FIGHT ON NORTH SHORE

The police of several north shore suburbs last night attempted to trace two automobiles whose occupants engaged in a revolver duel as the cars raced through the exclusive residential district of Evanston. Butlers, maids, and occupants of homes along Ridge avenue rushed to their front porches when the battle opened in the vicinity of Greenleaf street. The shooting continued for more than a mile as the cars sped north.

More than thirteen shots were exchanged in front of the homes of Horace Armstrong, secretary and treasurer of Reid, Murdoch & Co.; A. H. Gross, and James A. Patten and Edward Hines at Ridge avenue and Lake street. The firing continued as they roared past the residences of George B. Dryden, one of the largest stockholders in the Eastman Kodak company, and David R. Forgan, president of the National City bank, at Greenwood boulevard.

A number of shots rimmed past the residence of Chancellor Jenks, 1217 Ridge avenue, national president of the Sons of the American Revolution. The Wilmette police received a number of calls notifying them of the racing battle, but motorcycle men were unable to overtake the cars.

Lake Forest Police Auto Stolen as They Seek Thieves

While the Lake Forest police were patrolling the suburb Wednesday night thieves or joy riders quietly pushed the police car from the vicinity of the city hall, where it is parked for emergency use, and succeeded in making a successful getaway.

WASHINGTON NEWS — IN BRIEF —

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6.—(Special.) "Wet" hopes to obtain a plank in the Democratic and Republican national platforms favoring light wines and beer have gone glimmering, according to information percolating from the headquarters of both parties today.

REPRESENTATIVE TREADWAY of Massachusetts, a Republican member of the ways and means committee, caused surprise by declaring himself against both a bonus and a sales tax in a speech in the house.

CONGRESS, desperately striving to hold down expenditures, was amazed today when the railroad executives came forward with a virtual demand for another $500,000,000 loan, after having appealed to the interstate commerce commission several days ago for rate increases aggregating $1,017,000,000 a year.

SENATOR JOHNSON announced today that under no circumstances would he accept the vice presidential nomination.

LABOR'S non-partisan political campaign committee claims to have scored its first victory in the defeat of former Senator Joe Bailey of Texas as candidate for governor and delegate to the Democratic national convention.

PATRIOTISM THE FIRST AIM OF NEW CATHOLIC UNION

Americanization will be the chief work during the ensuing year of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, a lay organization composed of the Knights of Columbus, Catholic Order of Foresters, Knights of St. John, Associated Catholic Charities of Chicago, and many other similar bodies throughout the country. This was decided upon at the closing session of the annual convention of the federation yesterday at the Hotel La Salle.

The Rev. John Schramm, bishop of Toledo, supervisor of laymen activities in the Catholic church, is the moving spirit behind the new program. A general meeting is planned for next September, at which progress will be reported and a still wider Americanization program mapped out.

Two Chicagoans, Richmond Bean and Thomas Flynn, were elected members of the executive committee of twelve.

Prussian Bill Compels Cultivation of Land

BERLIN, May 6.—The Prussian diet has passed a bill for the cultivation of waste lands by the formation of associations for improvement of the soil. The object is to enable more people to live on the land and grow food. "By the constitution," Premier Braun said, "the land owner is in duty bound to cultivate the land, and if he does not he must be compelled to do so. In our impoverished condition we cannot indulge in the luxury of uncultivated land."

He estimated that 6,250,000 acres in Prussia were convertible into arable land.

ARNSTEIN 'FENCE' DEAD; $2,000,000 IS STILL MISSING

Hospital Records Halt Search by Police.

New York, May 6.—[Special.]—The hunt for assets in the Arnstein, Sullivan & Co. bankruptcy proceedings has received a setback through the discovery that Mortimer Bernstein, sought by the police in connection with the disposal of upward of $2,000,000 in stolen securities, died three weeks ago. Bernstein, who was more familiarly known to habitués of the white light district as "Morty Burns," is believed to be the "Stinky" in Joseph Gluck's story of "Nick" Cohen's visit to the Post-Graduate hospital. Gluck said Cohen delivered to this patient about $25,000 worth of securities which had been stolen in the financial district a few days before. Gluck could not recall the name beyond the fact that it ended in "stein." Bernstein died in the Post-Graduate hospital.

Arnstein Not "Master Mind."

The revelation that Bernstein played a prominent part in the disposal of the $2,500,000 worth of stolen securities convinced detectives working on the case that "Nick" Arnstein, after all, was not the "master mind" in the theft of the securities. They now believe that Arnstein was merely a collector of the stolen securities from dishonest messengers and that up to the time he met David W. Sullivan in October he had turned all of the stolen securities that came into possession over to Bernstein or some other member of the old Gondorf band of "wire tappers."

This belief was strengthened by the fact that Charles (Plunkety) Druker and "Eddie" Winkler, two leaders of the old Gondorf band, who fled from the city soon after the hunt for "Nick" Arnstein and "Nick" Cohen began, were intimates of Bernstein.

Twenty Suspects Missing.

It also became known that more than twenty accused persons are being hunted by police, federal agents, and private detectives.

The search is not confined to the United States for the missing "master minds." They have had plenty of time to establish themselves in distant lands or in Canada.

The inquiry by Saul S. Myers as attorney for bonding companies interested in the recovery of the stolen property brings new names added every day, but by the time the police get the information and authority to make an arrest the "underground" warning has been heeded and the list of those "wanted" is increased.

Edward Callaghan, a suspect in the disposal of $75,000 worth of securities stolen from the New York brokerage firm of Halle & Stieglitz, was held in $75,000 bail today. He pleaded not guilty. The bonds were recovered.

HINT BRIBERY IN SUFFRAGE FIGHT

Dover, Del., May 6.—Despite the efforts of anti-suffragists to force a vote in the lower house today, adjournment was taken until May 17 without any action. Suffrage leaders admitted they lack at least three votes.

The refusal of the senate, which yesterday passed the measure, to meet it to the house and the presentation of a concurrent resolution calling for a ten day recess created a spirited fight, charges being made that the delay was "to buy, bribe and cajole members of the house into voting for suffrage."

His "Bachelor Dinner" a $100,000 Damage Suit

New York, May 6.—[Special.]—Clifford R. Hendrix, member of the New York stock exchange, who is to marry tomorrow night Miss Eugenia M. Terry, daughter of Maj. John M. Terry, 200 Central Park West, was sued in the Supreme court today for $100,000 damages for breach of promise by Maud L. Coballins, an actress.

EMMA GOLDMAN, IN "FREE RUSSIA," PINES FOR U. S.

Writes of Longings to Dr. Ben Reitman.

Emma Goldman, leader of the "reds," who was transported to Russia, the land of her birth, last December, is homesick for America.

In a letter to Dr. Ben L. Reitman, written in Moscow March 8, she admits that conditions in Communist Russia are not as she painted them to her followers.

"It is three months since you waved good-by to me at the La Salle street station," she wrote. "But the things we have experienced and seen during that time make our absence seem like many years. You can well imagine that there is much I would like to write you about, but for the present you must be content rather with my desire than with the deed."

She misses America.

"I miss America. I lived there thirty years, you know. I have written to you several times through Stella and also direct, while we were in our floating prison. Letters should have reached you from the English channel, the Kiel canal, from Antwerp, and also from New York. I hope that at least some of them have reached you, as I know what it means to be completely cut off in this matter. Not a word has reached us from any one in the United States so far. You can imagine how we feel about it."

"It is very difficult for one at my age to acclimatize one's self in a new country even under the best conditions, in normal times. But Russia bled white by over four years of war and starved by the inhuman blockade is not a place where one may hope to take root easily. However, if I could at least hear from those dear to me I left behind, it would not be so difficult."

Not Active There.

"I suppose you will wonder whether I have become active here in some work. I have not. Owing partly to the lack of language and partly to the circumstance that I must first familiarize myself with the new and strange situation. We spend our time for the present seeing people, going about and getting acquainted with the situation."

"The great delights we have had so far have been the art theater and the Studio of Stanislavsky, of whose work, as you will remember, I have often spoken in my lectures. The acting is superb, the scenery and setting most wonderful in their simplicity. Beside that, we have seen some wonderful art galleries, in which Moscow in particular seems to be very rich."

"What are they doing in America? Tell me, friend."

Reds, Piqued by Allied Attitude, Scorn Overtures

MOSCOW, May 6.—Resumption of intercourse between Russia and allied countries is at present impossible, in the opinion of officials of the Soviet government. Their attitude results from the Polish offensive and Premier Lloyd George's refusal to receive Maxim Litvinoff as a member of the Russian delegation for reopening trade relations.

KEMAL'S ARMY IMPELS ALLIES TO CONCESSIONS

Constantinople to Parley with Nationalists.

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[By Special Cable.]
[Copyright, 1920: By the Tribune Company.]
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 6.—The Turkish government will make an effort to come to an understanding with the nationalists. The grand vizier will send a representative to Ankara to confer with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, Nureddin Pasha, former wali of Smyrna, probably will be selected.

It is reported that the allies are ready to make an important concession in the treaty, returning Smyrna and Cilicia to the Turks.

This offer probably will be rejected by the nationalists, who insist also that no part of the eastern vilayets be given to Armenia, that Adrianople be retained, and that there be no interference with the sultan caliph.

Turk Delegation Goes to Paris.
Two new delegates will represent the Turks when the peace terms are offered by the allies. The official delegation appointed by the Turkish government here has left by train for France. It consisted of five principals and the retinue, filling a special train.

An unofficial delegation, appointed by the nationalists who control Anatolia already is in Europe. These men will speak for a large majority of the Turks. The treaty, which will be offered for their consideration, is not the one drafted in London, but the one drawn at San Remo. It is couched in more diplomatic language, but the nationalists assert the result is the same. The claims will be argued by Ahmed Ruster Bey, former ambassador to Washington, and Ahmed Mustafal of the diplomatic service in Athens.

May Have Italy-France Support.

They were in Rome with the full knowledge of the Italian government during the San Remo negotiations and here it is thought they will have the support of Italy and perhaps of France. Both want to send missions to treat with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the nationalist leader in his headquarters at Ankara, and probably their officers will be given a hearing.

Lowden Defeated Wood in Illinois by 80,033 Votes

Springfield, Ill., May 6.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden received a majority of 80,033 votes over Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood at the Illinois presidential preference primary April 15, according to the official totals, which include the vote cast by both men and women.

Gov. Lowden received 236,802 votes of this number 197,073 were cast by men and 39,729 by women. Gen. Wood's total was 146,769 of which 122,000 were men's votes and 24,769 were women's.

BATTLE FOR KIEV

1—The Poles are fighting on a great semi-circle about Kiev. They are driving hard in a pincer movement as well, and have taken Katyn, sixty miles southwest, and are at the mouth of the Pripiet, fifty miles to the north. The Poles claim that they could enter Kiev if they so desired, but that they are waiting for the Ukrainians to enter first.

2—The Reds are heavily entrenched before Kiev, and are using artillery and machine guns to hold back the Poles, and are only retreating inch by inch.

3—The two bolshevik divisions trapped in the Bep-art area are reported to have been annihilated.

POLES SLOWLY WRESTING KIEV FROM RED GRIP

WARSAW, May 6.—[By the Associated Press.]—Fighting between the Poles and bolsheviks for possession of Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, continues day and night. In the entire semi-circle of the Kiev bridgehead the Polish infantry is in contact with the bolshevik infantry.

The Poles are slowly pushing back the enemy in the face of machine gun and artillery resistance. Polish cavalry, operating in the offensive against the bolsheviks, have occupied Skvira, in the Polish thrust toward the Dnieper. Skvira, which lies fifty miles east of Berdichev and is about sixty miles southwest of Kiev, was a bolshevik stronghold, protected by works along the nearby river and on the hills.

GRIFFIN'S WIDOW IS MARRIED DAY AFTER HIS DEATH

Becomes Bride of Naval Hero at San Diego.

ing when Mr. Griffin died was filed by Mrs. Griffin in the Circuit court here on Jan. 10, 1919. The bill asked for the custody of the three children, Rosemary, 12 years old; Thomas Francis, 12 years old; and Richard Buben, 9 years old.

Leo F. Wormser of the firm of Rosenthal, Hamill & Wormser, Mrs. Griffin's attorneys, said last night that the pending divorce action and the second marriage will in no way interfere with her sharing in the Griffin estate.

"We have no advices from Mrs. Griffin of her marriage," said Mr. Wormser last night. "Whatever there may be to this circumstance, she still survives Mr. Griffin as his widow, and, even though remarried, is entitled to all her rights in his estate. There is no reason to believe that the will does not make liberal provision for her."

Griffin Supplied Funds.
Mr. Wormser asserted that Mr. Griffin had contributed to his wife's support until the day he died.

There was no formal court order.

In the matter of any kind of alimony—temporary, or otherwise," he said. "He simply continued to send her money."

The divorce suit had been set for a hearing six or seven times. Each time a continuance was obtained on the same grounds—that the attorneys for both sides were attempting to reach a settlement as to the amount and nature of the alimony and to agree as to the custody of the children. The case was called before Judge Brothers, Ashcraft & Ashcraft represented Mr. Griffin.

The bill specifically charged that Mr. Griffin had been an habitual drunkard for two years previous to the beginning of the action. An answer was filed in which all of the material allegations in the declaration were denied.

"No Ill Feeling Caused."

Mrs. Prindiville said last night that her daughter's remarriage will not in any way estrange her from the Griffin family.

"Of course it was rather a startling thing to do—just at this time," she said. "But I am sure it will not cause any ill feeling on the part of any one."

"I suppose the commander, who was devoted to her, influenced her to marry him before she started east. I had written her to expect to remain in Chicago for some time, owing to the settling of the estate which will undoubtedly take some weeks. Perhaps they couldn't bear to be away from each other for so long a time without being married."

Friend of Prince of Wales.
The commander is one of the men who entertained the Prince of Wales when he stopped in San Diego on his way to Australia. He had known him in London, where he was stationed with Admiral Sims.

"He entertained my daughter on the ship he commands during the prince's visit."

LEAGUE COUNCIL WOULD BE DAD TO ARMENIAN CHILD

Washington, D. C., May 6.—[By the Associated Press.]—The council of the league of nations has refused to offer a mandate for Armenia to any power unless certain requested stipulations are embodied in the supreme council in the Turkish settlement.

According to official information received today, the league council in a note to the supreme council has insisted that the boundaries of Armenia be fixed; that a free port, preferably Batum, be accorded her, and that protection for the defense of the new state be provided.

The council of the league declares that no state should be asked to assume the burden of financing Armenia.

ROADS ASK LOAN
OF $625,000,000
FOR EQUIPMENTCar Shortage Cripples the Nation's Business.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., May 6.—(Special.)—Congress, striving to hold down government expenditures, was amazed today when the railroad executives came forward with a virtual demand for a loan of $625,000,000, after having appealed to the interstate commerce commission several days ago for a freight rate increase aggregating $1,017,000,000 a year.

They want an immediate loan of $125,000,000 from the $300,000,000 revolving fund provided for in the Esch-Cummings law. Later they want $500,000,000, and this is about what they would buy with these loans:

10,000 freight cars.....$370,000,000
1,000 locomotives.....130,000,000
1,000 passenger cars.....90,000,000
1,000 baggage cars.....50,000,000

Total.....$610,000,000
The railroads executives' committee comprised Presidents Edward E. Jones of the Pere Marquette, chairman; L. F. Loree of the Delaware and Hudson; Henry Walters of the Atlantic Coast Line; A. H. Smith of the New York Central; C. H. Markham of the Illinois Central; E. J. Pearson of the New Haven; and Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania.

Even That's Not Enough.

The executives say even the outlay of upward of $600,000,000 would not be enough to make necessary replacements as well as make up shortages.

A survey of the needs for all the roads shows they should have 235,000 freight cars, 9,500 passenger cars, 1,000 locomotives, costing $1,600,000,000.

This is far more equipment than could be produced in the next year, but even Jan. 1 orders have been placed for 27,774 freight cars and 518 locomotives. Even this will absorb more than the amount available in the revolving fund, making it necessary to issue equipment trust certificates for the balance. But the market, it is said, will not absorb these certificates. Money is costing 7 1/2 and 8 per cent, and even at such figures, bankers inform the railroads, not over $100,000,000 can be taken.

The government was therefore asked for the use of its credit, taking equipment trust certificates in exchange.

Might Affect U. S. Bonds.
President Rea said if the government guaranteed car certificates for the road would be able to borrow at 6 1/2 per cent instead of the 7 1/2 per cent paid on its latest borrowings.

"Where would government bonds go then, if you were issuing a new kind at 6 1/2 per cent?" Senator Kellogg, Republican, Minnesota, queried.
The witness said he did not know.
"The manufacturers," President Smith said, "the stockmen, the producers of the country, are right up to the neck in the same predicament. Now, and even with the $500,000,000 loan the equipment would be a year behind."

Railroads west of the Mississippi merited filled with the interstate commerce commission today proposals for advances of 24 per cent in freight rates to increase their revenues $352,335,000 a year, the minimum necessary to bring their net income up to 6 per cent on a property investment of $4,962,852,000.

"Uncle Joe"—4 Generations

Above are four generations in the family of Congressman Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois. At the right is his daughter, Mrs. Ernest X. Leseure of Danville, Ill. At the left, holding her baby, is Mr. Cannon's granddaughter, formerly Miss Virginia Leseure, now the wife of Capt. William Houghteling of San Francisco, Cal. The baby is Lucretia Leseure Houghteling, great-granddaughter of "Uncle Joe." She is 6 months old.

Mr. Cannon was elected to the forty-third congress in 1872 and since has served forty-four years up to the present time. In 1890 and 1912 Uncle Joe failed of election. The other day he was nominated for congress for the twenty-fifth time in the Danville district.

"Uncle Joe" will celebrate his eighty-fourth birthday at Washington today. He was born at Guilford, N. C., May 7, 1836.

GERMANY TELLS
WHAT IT NEEDS TO REOPEN SHOP

BERLIN, May 6.—The minimum imports needed by Germany for the year ending July 31, 1921, are given in a memorial to the reparations commission as follows:

Food and fodder, 5,500,000 tons; fertilizer, 900,000; coal, 2,000,000; mineral oils, 550,000; ores and metals, 8,500,000; wood, 2,500,000; raw textiles, 500,000; hides and leather, 150,000; miscellaneous, 1,500,000.

This amounts to 21,500,000 tons, as compared with nearly 73,000,000 tons in 1913.

FIX INDEMNITY,
DELAY PAYMENT,
GERMANY SAYSFrench See Plan for New War Chest.

BY HENRY WALES.

(By Special Cable.)

PARIS, May 6.—The German chargé d'affaires, Herr Mayer, told Premier Millerand this morning that after conferences with Ebert and Muller they would insist that no fixed yearly payments be agreed to at the Spa conference on the ground that it will be at least a year before Germany knows about its revenues.

Mayer stated that new tax measures just passed the reichstag, but that no one knows how much will be obtainable under them and what amount the German government will have available.

Coal Output to Increase.

Mayer promised that coal mining would increase weekly, the railroads would operate better and that production would increase everywhere if the raw materials were obtainable, but Mayer issued a warning against the allies arbitrarily fixing yearly payments at the Spa conference. He insisted the Ebert government is ignorant of how much taxes it can collect, therefore of what it can pay.

It was stated the German government favors the allies fixing a definite total sum for the reparations, hinting, however, that anything above $125,000,000 marks, gold, is out of the question.

The French foreign office believes that Germany hopes to haggle about the total reparations until the figure is comparatively small, like 125,000,000 marks, but seeks to evade promising yearly payments of even as little as 3,000,000 marks so it can establish a sinking fund as a future "war chest." Millerand did not promise anything to Mayer.

Will Confer on Trade.

Five representatives of German industries are to arrive in Paris May 15 to discuss resumption of trade. They represent the chemical trades, metallurgicals, textiles, and general industry. The fifth is a financial expert.

An American closely connected with the reparations conference today said 100,000,000 marks gold expresses the highest figure the allies can obtain from Germany.

The French, he said, can obtain a greater amount of paper, but that will be like watering stock, and will not help the French finances.

FRANCE WORRY?
SHE'S TOO BUSY,
MARSAL AVERSDemands Berlin Pay for Devastation.

BY EDWIN L. JAMES.

(Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.)

(Copyright 1920.)

PARIS, May 6.—Francis Marsal, French minister of finance, speaking at a luncheon given by English and American journalists today, announced that the income of France will meet all its disbursements, except what is needed for the devastated regions. That, he said, is owed by Germany and that debt is number eight of President Wilson's fourteen points. Under the treaty of peace, he said, it is made an international affair to see it paid.

He resented the idea that France is not doing all it can to better its economic and financial situation. He said parliament had voted 18,000,000,000 francs on new taxes.

France Self-Sustaining.

"France will support its normal and permanent expenses by means which appear most efficacious and just without asking help from anybody," he said. "Our budget will support our expenses of war and of peace, but besides these expenses our treasury faces exceptionally and extraordinary charges. I refer to the cost of reconstruction of the devastated regions, the cost of the reparations of damage caused by the aggressor. These expenses belong to Germany."

"As for the problem of the liberated regions and of the German indemnity, that is an international question, even an international question."

Work to Right World.

"Everybody is worrying about the world's economic troubles. They will be solved. Exchange will retake a normal course, the commercial equilibrium of the world will be reestablished only when the activities of production can be fully resumed."

Auto Kills Boy, 7, Going

on Errand for His Mother

While accompanying his elder brother on a shopping errand for his mother last night, Willis Callaghan, 7 years old, of 1813 Cuyler avenue was run down and fatally injured by an automobile under the Ravenswood "L" structure in Irving Park boulevard. The car was driven by Arthur S. Cogan of 2710 Giddings street, superintendent of the Viscosity Oil company, 1101 West Thirty-seventh street.

Cogan said he was driving at moderate speed when the boy darted in front of the machine. He attempted to swerve and collided with the car of Israel Lutz, 1023 North Oakley boulevard. Both cars were damaged.

Cogan placed the injured boy in his car and rushed him to the hospital, where he died an hour later.

TRIBUNE MAN
OPPOSES LAW
FOR NEWSPRINT

Washington, D. C., May 6.—(Special.)—S. E. Thomson, business manager of this CHICAGO TRIBUNE, told the senate committee investigating the newsprint paper shortage today that legislation would not benefit the situation and probably would have a bad effect.

The paper mills, he said, were being offered such high prices for wood pulp for use in other industries such as box board, cardboard, and papers of other kinds that any interference with the newsprint industry would only result in driving the manufacturers to make other and more profitable products.

Asked for his suggestion for a remedy of the shortage, Mr. Thomson detailed the voluntary paper savings of this TRIBUNE which had lately averaged 272 tons a week. If the other metropolitan dailies would take the same steps by voluntary action, the shortage, he said, unquestionably could be relieved.

Senators asked Mr. Thomson regarding the reasons for the large size of the TRIBUNE and other metropolitan dailies. The average number of news columns in this TRIBUNE in the last year, he said, had not exceeded those of many of the daily papers in smaller cities, and that the remainder of the paper was given over to advertising absolutely essential to the marketing of goods in the Chicago district in view of the large shortage of salesmen.

Showing of Mid-Summer Millinery in the Salon des Debutantes

HATS of Summer, lovely in their flowerlike coloring and transparent materials, are ready this week for selection to go with Summer costumes. Wide, drooping brims add their unerring becomingness to soft falls of lace or folds of organdie which frame the face. Ribbon streamers, flowers, or crisp organdie bows are gay or quaint as befits the Hat they adorn.

There are Organdies, Crepes, Georgettes, Horsehair Braids and Leghorns

Ofttimes flowers are made of delicate tinted organdie. In one case shaded petals of this charming gauze-like fabric form an entire Hat. Other trimmings are lace, ostrich and Summer flowers. The Hat sketched is of cream-colored lace with vari-colored flowers.

RHODE ISLAND'S DEMOCRATS ARE 'WILLFUL GROUP'

Providence, R. I., May 6.—Disapproval of article X of the covenant of the league of nations as submitted by President Wilson to the senate, but approval of a league of nations that would conform to the principle of self-determination for small nations was expressed by the Democratic party of Rhode Island in a resolution adopted at the state convention here today.

Commends Irish Support.

Another resolution commended Senator Peter G. Gerry for his stand in behalf of Ireland as expressed in the resolution bearing his name that was adopted by the senate on March 18 last. The resolution also directed the delegates from this state to the national convention at San Francisco "to do everything in their power to the end that the Irish republic be recognized by the government of the United States."

Ten uninstructed delegates were elected to the national convention. The platform recommended an amendment to the federal constitution to provide for ratification of amendments in the future by popular votes in the states.

New York for Unit Rule.

Albany, N. Y., May 6.—New York state's delegates to the national Democratic convention at San Francisco went on record as favoring the unit rule here tonight at the opening session of a two day conference.

A resolution offered by former Congressman J. J. Fitzgerald of New York calling upon the conference to abide by the unit rule resolution accepted at the unofficial state convention in Albany in February, was adopted by a viva voce vote, after one by former Congressman George R. Lunn, now mayor of Schenectady, which sought to abolish it, was rejected, 64 to 8.

The fight for the abolition of the unit rule will be carried to the floor of the national convention, Lunn said.

Missouri "Eight" Unpledged.

Kansas City, Mo., May 6.—Eight delegates at large to the Republican national convention, uninstructed as to presidential preference, were elected by the Republican state convention which adjourned late today after having been in session since yesterday.

Each delegate has half a vote. Mrs. Veronika Swan of Joplin, Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer-Wing of Wayne county were elected as the two women members of the delegation.

Resolutions adopted by the convention included sections condemning the league of nations covenant without reservations; denouncing the national administration, and demanding that all laws be strictly enforced.

No Colorado Instructions.

Pueblo, Colo., May 6.—The state Republican convention meeting here today elected four uninstructed delegates at large to the national convention, elected John F. Vivian of Golden national committeeman, to succeed Dr. Hubert Work of Pueblo and adjourned after adopting resolutions indorsing the state administration and the work of the Colorado Republicans in congress.

$527,074 BRIDGE SETTLEMENT STIRS CITY QUIZ

The proposal of the city administration to settle for $527,074 the Strauss Bascule Bridge company's claim for alleged patent infringement will be investigated today by a council subcommittee composed of Ald. Schwartz, Kostner, and Fetzer.

A private inquiry into the records of the sanitary district yesterday revealed that in 1912 the Strauss firm erected the Jackson boulevard bridge for the drainage board, agreeing to charge only $3,000 for the use of its patents in the event that its pending damage suit against the city was decided in its favor and its rights in the patents upheld.

The settlement advocated by the city administration would average approximately $44,000 per bridge.

Because of veiled charges that the proposed city settlement is too liberal, Ald. Schwartz, committee chairman, announced last night that a careful inquiry would be conducted. A special attorney will be hired and the Western Society of Engineers will be asked to aid in determining whether the amount is reasonable.

The bridge company won its suit against the city in the federal courts on the ground that ideas it had patented were used by city engineers in the erection of twelve bascule bridges. Pending a decision of Master in Chancery Charles B. Morrison fixing the damages to which the bridge company is entitled, attorneys for the city and for the Strauss company arrived at the compromise figure of $527,074. Commissioner of Public Works Charles R. Francis appeared before the finance committee and advocated settlement rather than taking the case to the United States Supreme court.

EDWARDS AVOWS HIS CANDIDACY FOR PRESIDENCY

New York, May 6.—Gov. Edwards of New Jersey tonight became an avowed and active candidate for the Democratic nomination for president. Walker W. Vick, his personal friend, issued the formal announcement of the candidacy and of the opening here of Edwards' campaign headquarters.

"Gov. Edwards begins his campaign without any political machinery or prestige lent him from any source," Mr. Vick said.

"He runs on his record as governor of New Jersey; as its former comptroller and as a man of affairs in the business and financial world of this country for twenty-five years. His rise in the business world as a self-made man, as well as his entire career, both business and political, presents abundant proof of his sympathetic regard for the great productive forces of the country."

Hamilton Club Election 'Frameup' Charge Denied

Charges of a "frame-up" in the Hamilton club election, made by supporters of Robert W. Dunn, candidate for president, were vigorously denied by the "regulars" yesterday. A mass meeting attended by several hundred members was held in the interest of Stillman T. Meervey, the "regular" candidate, and the allegations were declared to be "wickedly false," "untrue" and "slandrous" by ex-President John H. Batten and John C. Everett.

MAYOR TO FORCE HIS POLICIES ON STATE G. O. P.

Lively Fight on Platform Expected Monday.

Mayor Thompson and the Thompson-Landon organization in Cook county have only a single thought with respect to what the Republican state convention should do at Springfield next Monday. That is to write into a state platform, to be adopted Monday, the substance of the mayor's platform that was adopted last week by the mayor's executive committee.

A Republican national committee man from Illinois, the mayor last night issued a statement addressed to "the Republicans of Illinois," appealing to them to cause the state convention delegates to "stand up and be counted" as to whether the Cook county declaration shall be the policy of the Republican party of the state. At this moment it looks as though this will be the only issue that will confront the state convention. On all other issues, it is understood that the Cook county delegation will permit Gov. Landon and the downstaters to have their own way.

Landon Policy Undecided.

The policy to be followed by the Landon leaders and the downstate Republicans generally is to be determined largely at conferences that will start at Springfield this afternoon. Possibly the governor may be threatened with deprivation of the mayor's national convention votes that he controls in eight of the Chicago districts unless he is willing to go along with the mayor's platform demands.

At this time, it seems probable that the governor and the downstaters will meet upon the precedent in Illinois, whereby a committee on resolutions will be named which will report a platform to an adjourned session of the state convention to be held in late July or early in August, after the national convention shall have been held and the party's stand nationally is definitely determined.

Mayor Gives Ideas.

Mayor Thompson's statement asserts that the Cook county platform "speaks the will of the great majority of the Republicans of Cook county."

"It seeks to relieve by lawful means the intolerable burdens placed upon the American people," Mayor Thompson said. "It seeks to right the wrongs committed during the last four years. It seeks to prohibit the profiteers and the war hogs in the future from substituting for our free government the bayonet and the machine gun. It seeks to save the republic from sure disintegration if the wealth of our country is permitted to be concentrated in the hands of a few."

Opposed to Militarism.

MRS. ROBERT CARTER.

Mrs. Robert Carter sat in Judge Scanlan's courtroom yesterday and watched the selection of jurors who will determine her youthful husband's fate. Beside her were Albert and Margaret Brisbane, sisters of Edward Brisbane, while only a few yards away, dressed in black, sat Mrs. William Mills. Mrs. Mills' husband was shot to death by Brisbane and Carter, and Prosecutors Barnhardt and McShane are asking that the two die on the gallows. Both prisoners once confessed to their crime, saying they committed it when intoxicated but inability to have the death penalty waived determined them to plead not guilty. The defense will be temporary insanity, due to drink. Attorney James W. Burke represents Carter.

icans throughout the state and serves notice on the Republican national convention that the faith of our people in true republicanism is still alive, and that they will not forsake these doctrines for the militaristic ideals of the international bankers, the munition makers, the steel trust, and the other profiteers who would coin the blood and agony of war into excess profits for themselves."

JOHNSON 'NO' TO VICE PRESIDENCY EMPHATIC, FINAL

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., May 6.—(Special.)—Senator Hiram Johnson made it emphatically plain today that he does not propose to be sidetracked at the Chicago convention with offers of the vice presidential nomination. He issued a statement today designed to put an end to efforts to satisfy him with second place on the Republican ticket.

"Under no circumstances," he said, "will I accept the nomination for the vice presidency. I must decline with thanks. We might as well have that understood now and end that sort of thing."

"It is a singular thing," he added, "that those persons who are most enthusiastically booming me for the vice presidency are the same ones who look with such horror upon my possible nomination for the presidency."

The suggestion of Senator McCormick of Illinois, that Senator Lodge be given the temporary chairmanship and former Senator Beveridge of Indiana be given the permanent chairmanship, is meeting with much favor, and, unless Senator Johnson puts his foot down on it, probably will furnish the basis for a harmonious settlement.

Senator Borah today introduced his redrafted resolution to investigate alleged primary campaign boodling. Senator Borah's plan is to have the investigating committee go to Chicago and carry on its inquiry in coordination with the credentials committee as it passes on contested delegations. Senator Borah said he was informed that the methods of acquiring southern delegates this year were worse than ever.

PALMER ACCUSED OF LABOR LIBEL TO AID PROFITEER

Washington, D. C., May 6.—Attorney General Palmer's warning of May day violence and steps taken to prevent it were assailed before the railroad labor board today by Timothy Healy, president of the Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Oilers, as a part of what he characterized "a despicable propaganda against labor."

Such propaganda, Mr. Healy said, was started within less than twenty-four hours after the signing of the armistice, and was designed "to poison the minds of the people to such an extent that the profiteers could still further increase prices and place the blame on labor."

While not naming the attorney general directly, Mr. Healy told the board the "crusade" of a "high government official" against radicals was "undoubtedly for the purpose of aiding in the campaign of certain employers of the country to secure laws establishing involuntary servitude."

The attorney general's warning of

May day violence and murder of federal and state officials was characterized as "the most flagrant instance of the most despicable crusade."

PROCTER GIVEN FULL CHARGE OF WOOD CAMPAIGN

All of the present headquarters for Gen. Leonard Wood for the Republican nomination for president are to be concentrated early next week in Chicago and Col. William Cooper Procter is to have immediate and personal control of Gen. Wood's convention campaign. New York and Washington headquarters are to be closed.

Col. Procter is to be "campaign manager" and Frank H. Hitchcock and Thomas W. Miller are to be "campaign advisers."

SENATOR KNOX ON PEACE.

Senator Knox did not mince words in his arraignment of the president's obstruction of a declaration of peace. We think he will have, at least on this issue, the support of a growing majority of the American people. As perhaps the most distinguished international lawyer in the senate, his assertion that "there was no excuse whatsoever for greatly prolonging the war beyond the signing of the armistice" will carry especial weight, and not only Republicans but a considerable number of disgusted Democrats will agree with him that "the only explanation for so doing was the deliberate aim to retain all those autocratic, compulsory powers with which the executive had been endowed for the prosecution of the war, in order that they might be used for other purposes."

Certainly the points made by Democratic Chairman Cummings, after his consultation with the White House, make no respectable case against the resolution and must leave even the adherents of Mr. Wilson at a loss to justify his attitude toward peace.

In any case, what the public sees clearly enough is that whereas we are not waging war we are in a position which embarrasses us in our relations with Europe and which prevents us in some measure from freely dealing either with the situation abroad or the complicated conditions at home.

If the president were to submit his attitude on peace to a solemn referendum of the people he would find little support for it. With England, France, and Italy at peace there is no reason why we should wait longer. In fact, Senator Knox asserts that in law as in fact we are at peace internationally and require only the formal declaration of the status to clear away the legal consequences of the condition of war.

That congress, having the sole power under the constitution to declare war, must have the corresponding power to declare peace, seems not only logical but logically inevitable. There is no reason we know of to doubt that the framers of the constitution so intended, and this is what Senator Knox holds.

As for the covenant, Senator Knox is an "irreconcilable" and inasmuch as there is little likelihood of ratification of the treaty, the alternative course proposed by Senator Knox is worthy of the most careful consideration. His proposal is for an international conference to formulate for submission to the nations of the world for adoption an arrangement providing for the codification of international law, the establishment of a court of international justice, and the outlawry of war.

"This arrangement," he said, "should be as complete, comprehensive, and compelling as shall be consistent with human rights and human liberty, with the progress of civilization, with the preservation and fostering of free institutions, and with the inherent right of every people to be secure, to enjoy peace, and to work out unhampered its own destiny, subject only to like equal rights of all other peoples."

This, in fact, is to return to the line of evolution and the ideas of international development followed by us prior to Mr. Wilson's endorsement of the league of nations idea and his adoption of the scheme presented by the British commissioners at Paris.

Its adoption in place of the dubious league plan would certainly not be inconsistent with American policy of the past, and it would avoid the dangers of a complicated commitment to European politics which seems inherent in the covenant scheme.

We believe Senator Knox's leadership in this debate has marked him as a man in whom the supreme control of our foreign relations might well be intrusted.

PLACE AUX DAMES.

The rash Mr. Bottomley found to his chagrin that in assuming the privileges of a seat in parliament Lady Astor had forfeited none of those pertaining to her sex; so it is, and so it will remain.

Ladies in politics are there for their amusement and the amusement of men who like to see them playing politics. They add color to the scene, but they are not part of the play. We enjoy their activities, but we do not take them seriously, thus Lady Astor's speech on divorce is the expressed opinion of a lady, not the speech of a M. P. In it we see not a statesman's argument, but the attitude of mind of a woman happily married.

A FOOD PANIC.

The Michigan crop report for April is a warning to the nation. Correspondents from fifty-one townships report the farm labor supply at 80 per cent of last year's and 60 per cent of normal, even with farm wages at unprecedented heights. These correspondents deal with facts. They assert that hundreds of farmers have given up hope of harvesting full crops and are preparing to plant only what they can handle alone; that many will raise enough only to support their families; that others are practically abandoning their farms for the season and taking jobs in town because they cannot farm profitably in present circumstances.

This situation is not confined to Michigan. It is, to a greater or less extent, nation-wide. Even with normal labor the forecast for crops is bad. A late spring and other handicaps are cited. These cannot be overcome, but they can be minimized by sufficient properly applied labor. Without such labor on the farms high wages in the city next winter will never cover the increased costs of food.

City workers who already feel the pressure of food prices will show true wisdom if they turn to the farm, as some few are doing. They at least need suffer no food panic. If enough of them show such wisdom, the country will not suffer. Otherwise it is likely to do so.

KEEPING THE CRIME ISSUE CLEAR.

Judge W. N. Gemmill bases an assertion that crime is decreasing in Chicago upon figures showing that the total number of arrests in the city today is no greater than the number thirty years ago when the city was less than half its present size.

We do not wish to engage in a controversy with Judge Gemmill, but we believe such statistics in themselves are misleading and dangerous. The great majority of arrests are for petty offenses. In the matter of safety to life and property, these cases, although listed as "crimes," mean nothing. Disorderly conduct cases have fallen off greatly, but felony cases show no such decrease.

Against the judge's assertion that there has been a 25 per cent decrease in felony cases in the first four months of 1920, we have the records of the Chicago crime commission showing 1,375 burglaries in the first three months of this year, compared to 1,318 in the first three months of last year. The decrease in petty offenses should not be allowed to serve as a cloak for increase in more serious crimes. Only by keeping the facts clearly before the public and insisting that the authorities deal effectively with felonies can we hope for improvement.

AVIATION AND DEFENSE.

"If we are sufficiently prepared in the air I am positive that it would be absolutely impossible for any foreign foe to menace this country."

The short cut to victory always sought by the boob civilian. In this case the boob civilian is Maj. Benedict Crowell, assistant secretary of war—a successful civilian engineer and constructor and fellow townsman of Mr. Baker.

Mr. Crowell had experience in munitions supply as member of the munitions board, and later as assistant secretary of war his experience broadened. In this field we should listen to his opinions with respect, but as a general theorist on war we believe he is not well equipped.

Also, Maj. Crowell saw no service at the front. This was not to his discredit, as he was past military age for the civilian soldier, but it deprives his views on the fighting arm of considerable weight.

Maj. Crowell was not a flyer, had no experience in aviation—in fact, occupied a desk 3,000 miles away from the front. His views on the possibilities of the airplane in warfare are based at best upon what flying men told the desk man who told Maj. Crowell. We would rather get our ideas as to the possibilities and limitations of aviation from the men who flew the machines and the men over whom they flew—that is, from airmen, and not from a desk man, and infantry men.

Lazy minded civilians are always looking for a military cure-all—a marvelous gas which will abolish the enemy in one wave, a gun that will outrange all other guns and can be operated by a child, an airplane that is indestructible, a submarine that will destroy navies and make war impossible.

But military history proves and military students know that there is a law of compensation in war as elsewhere, that invention counterbalances invention in the long run, that a new offensive is soon met by a new defensive, and vice versa, and that war which engages all the resources of men and civilization cannot be reduced to one device.

THE TRIBUNE urges the greatest development of aviation in this country both for peace and war. But the country should not be encouraged to devote itself into thinking that one branch of the many-aided activity of war can give us immunity from attack or assurance of victory.

RAISING THE BOND LIMIT.

Oscar Hewitt reports that nearly every delegate to the constitutional convention believes the bonding power of cities for general corporate purposes should be raised. He says there is every indication that the convention will permit an increase in the limit of Chicago's bonding powers from $52,658,568 to $352,999,761.

That is indeed raising the limit. Before it is accomplished we might well look into the purposes of such a move. The chief one seems to be to make funds available for the purchase of public utilities. Advocates of municipal ownership long have fretted under the inability of the city to provide for the purchase of the street car lines. So far as we can learn their influence has been stronger than any other in the plan to quadruple the city's bonding power.

If the chief purpose of raising the bonding limit is to buy public utilities and give politicians a new field of revenue and exploitation, with a new grip on the taxpayer, THE TRIBUNE sees little but danger in it. Advocates of the measure may argue that the public doesn't have to vote the bond issues just because they are legal, but with so many millions to spend as a prize much shrewd and deceptive propaganda will be developed to confuse the voter and bring about the issuance of bonds which can be ill afforded.

On the other hand, there is no question that Chicago's bonding limit is far below the average of large cities. It is likely to work to the disadvantage of the city in future improvements and growth.

It seems that a happy medium might be reached in the proposed extension of bonding power. It should be an increase which will be fair to the taxpayer and fair to the future of the city, but providing no new political plums at the expense of either.

Editorial of the Day

SOLDIER REHABILITATION.

Congressman Fess' committee on education has received from the house full powers to proceed with its inquiry into the breakdown of the vocational bureau's program of soldier rehabilitation.

These powers the committee must now employ in a sincere endeavor to establish responsibility, to inflict punishment, and to start the machinery of rehabilitation afresh.

Half-hearted measures will not be tolerated by public opinion. The American people may have been fast forgetting the war, but they cannot forget their duty and the pledge of honor to the men upon whom the nation called to pay the price of victory and who willingly did.

The disabled and neglected veterans will be with us as a continual reminder of our solemn obligations. That is the moral argument. The practical argument is that once the inquiry begins public opinion will compel a thorough inquiry. It will not endure any suspicion of a whitewash. It is better for the investigating committee to face its duty boldly than to be pushed into it by us.

H. C. L. AND BURIAL RITES.

"WILL you kindly give one or more articles on cremation," "Three Sages and Ten" writes. "Many in Chicago and elsewhere are nearing the end of life, and the last expense is a heavy one. They are without friends and not money sufficient to meet the ordinary charges of burial plot, casket, hearse, etc. Our minds must turn to cremation as the only way."

"Also an article on embalming, so that mothers may know to what they submit their children when put in the embalmers' hands."

Our burial customs originate from necessities or advantages. Whether our dead are exposed to insects, the bacteria, the sun and the elements on an elevated platform in the ground or burned and buried originally upon the kind and abundance of wild animals, the fighting customs of the peoples.

Naturally, the builders of religions found fruit in these in the mystery of death, and they turned added a contribution to burial customs. Next came those who, building racial and governmental solidarity, made use of ancestral worship, and the last expense was a heavy one. Lastly, tradition and prejudice contributed by fixing the procedure.

Incidentally, burial customs have contributed to the art of sculpture. They have contributed to stability, government, racial, and family. We have the custom of burying, just as other races have other customs. Our custom is hedged about with traditions, memories, sentiments, and religious observances. That also can be said of the customs of other peoples. This is the strongest argument for the custom.

THE FRIEND OF THE SOLDIER

WISHES LEGION MEMBERSHIP.

Chicago, May 2.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—Please inform me of the location of the centrally located post of the American Legion in Chicago where I may make application for membership.

I have been informed that the K. of C. are conducting free evening schools in vocational lines for ex-service men. If this be true, can you advise me when and where to make application for enrollment in the school?

C. I. W.
There are many centrally located posts of the American Legion. We advise that you get in touch with the Legion headquarters at 111 West Washington street or telephone Franklin 4084.

The Knights of Columbus organization has opened three schools in different sections of the city. You may apply any week night after 7 o'clock, except Saturday. The north side school is at De Paul university, 1010 Webster avenue; west, St. Ignace college, Blue Island avenue; and Roosevelt road, south side, South Division high school, Twenty-sixth and Wabash avenue.

Or go to the war activities council, 155 North LaSalle street.

SUMMER ENCAMPMENTS.

Camp Grant, Ill., April 30.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I have a fiancée in France and want to know how to go about bringing her to this country to marry her.

Upon receiving your inquiry to the local immigration office they advise that the steps necessary to bring this young woman to this country are as follows: She should procure a passport from her government, which must be vouched for by an American consul. You should engage an American agent, a notary public, setting up your employment, financial condition, and intentions in regard to the alien. This affidavit should be sent to the consul to present to the United States consul for his information. After you learn on what ship she will come to the United States you may proceed from the immigration office, 1309 Postoffice building, Chicago, blank affidavits to be made and forwarded to the immigration officers at the port of entry to enable them to determine the admissibility of the alien.

OFFICERS INCLUDED.
Utica, Ind., May 4.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I have seen a lot in the papers about homestead lands being open to soldiers. I do not know whether this is for ex-officers as well as enlisted men. Please advise me.

The offer is extended to both officers and enlisted men now discharged from the service. For detailed information about the lands open to soldiers, write to the War Department, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

APPLY FOR DISCHARGE.
Chicago, May 5.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I was in the army as an officer in the medical reserve corps. I have heard anything about being called to training this summer, but, anyway, would like to get out of the reserve altogether. How does one go about it—re-sign or ask for discharge?

B. R.
Apply for discharge to the surgeon general of the army, through the department of the army, at the War Department, 230 East Ohio street, Chicago, Ill.

CASH VALUE.
Mendota, Ill., May 5.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—What is the cash value of a twenty payment life policy of government life insurance at the end of twenty years, age 20, and based on $1,000?

F. H. F.
For each thousand dollar policy, $308.40

DEVELOPING OUT SOUTH.

Chicago, May 6.—[To the Friend of the People.]—A petition has been turned in for several years since the first of the year, to be extended from Ninety-fifth to Ninety-sixth street in Perry avenue. Would like to know when work will be started, as sanitary conditions are very bad for the eight families living in that block.

REPLY.

You are advised that a proceeding was recently originated for sewer in Perry avenue, between Ninety-fifth and Ninety-sixth streets. Can this firm hold my mother, who is my only living parent, for the amount still due on the suit my friend purchased?

3. If neither of us can be held for the amount due, would it be best to inform this firm not to bother me any more concerning the matter?

REPLY.

1. Yes, if the defense is properly presented.
2. No.
3. Yes.

THEY'RE PRETTY, BUT—

Chicago, May 6.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Will you please tell me how to make my neighbor shut her pigeons up, as I have a garden every year and they have picked the tops off of my onions already, and of course, when such things as lettuce, radishes, etc., come up they will kill everything. I have appealed to her in vain; she refuses to keep the pigeons in, and unless something can be done it is good-by garden.

Mrs. E. A. B.
A notice was served on the owner to "confine pigeons to two premises, or else pay $100." JOHN DILL ROBERTSON, Commissioner of Health.

ROOMER GETS A WEEK'S NOTICE.

Chicago, May 5.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—When a roomer pays his room rent one week in advance can the landlord raise his room rent on the day the rent is due for the coming week?

W. H. M.
If the landlord has right of access, it is probable that the ordinary rules as to landlord and tenant do not apply, but the landlord can raise the rent at the end of any week. After a week has commenced, the notice would not be effective as to that week.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

As but limited space can be given letters in this department, writers must confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Unless they give their full names and addresses, their letters will not be considered. No manuscript will be returned unless the writer sends postage for that purpose.

BEING RED.

Chicago, May 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—A writer in the Voice of the People recently called attention to the fact that we are urged to spend less and avoid waste and extravagance, while at the same time, parallel with this plea, is a nice little description of a pleasant junketing tour planned for members of congress and their families to learn at first hand what effect playing the ukulele has on the high cost of living. He says it makes him see red. It makes me see crimson, vermillion, carmine, and scarlet.

Last fall I read in one of our leading dailies a pathetic plea that the farmers must by all means produce more in order to keep all from a shortage, and as a side by side with the same article a news dispatch from London stating that tens of thousands of tons of foodstuffs were deteriorating in the warehouses there, being held by profiteers for higher prices.

A few more news items like these shades incarnadine the world in seven shades. We are now being urged by somebody or other in congress to appropriate vast sums of money to keep us all warm with England and France. It is a matter of quite recent history that during the war we spent over $600,000,000 for airplanes and the net result was about 197 airplanes. This makes one airplane come to about three million, rather more, I believe we will need a fleet of 10,000, or maybe 20,000 or so, to compete with England and France.

Some day perhaps the people will organize a nice little junketing trip to the United States in No Man's Land, Washington, D. C., in order to learn at first hand just what playing the deuce has to do with the high cost of living.

NEWS FOR TONY SPIRAS.

OLD ACTOR KILLS SELF AS LAUGHS HERALD TRIUMPH

Found Hanged While Loop
Plaudits Still Echo.

Old Billiken's shabby linen suit—tattered trousers, shapeless coat, and all—hung on its nail in a rear dressing room of the Studebaker theater until a late hour last night. Then a new wearer was found for it, and the rollicking musical comedy, "Sometime," proceeded without a hitch.

Old Billiken is a minor rôle. He is on the stage only two minutes. He enters on and off, clinging to the arm of a sprightly flapper—decrepit age and joyous youth. Sam J. Burton was adapted to the rôle. He was 70 years old.

At the matinee yesterday he was particularly effective.

Laughter His Laurels.

And the audience accorded him the customary tribute of uproarious laughter in the racing club scene in the Argentine. That is where Frank Timony says to the flapper escorting him: "Where did you get that old Billiken, Mamie? Why don't you take him back and put him in his coffin?" Mamie took him back yesterday, but he had to return for three encores. After the last curtain call he retired to his dressing room. There he removed the shabby linen suit and hung it on the accustomed nail. It belongs to the company.

James Brown, a stage hand, found him an hour later, hanging from a steam pipe. He had used the cord of his dressing gown as a rope, and had stood on a chair.

The Days That Once Were.

A note in his vest pocket read: "If anything happens to me, please notify Mark Duncan. He is with the Chicago Talking Machine company, 12 North Michigan avenue." Duncan knew Burton when he used to live in Franklin, Ind. Tom Donnel, himself a white haired veteran, now with the Grace George company, knew him, too. "Yes, I remember Sam in the good old days," he said. "Back in the '90s he headed his own company as Si Perkins. He was a great comedian. Once he played opposite Lillian Russell. But he got old. They slow up when they get old, you know. Only minor parts now. He asked me the other day if crowning was an easy death. Discouraged. I told him to forget it." He had no intimate friends. A sister at Franklin survives him. The body is at 118 Federal street. There will be a former's inquest this morning.

ELLA CERMAK.

Miss Ella Cermak, daughter of Ald. and Mrs. Anton J. Cermak, 2532 South Trumbull avenue, and Dr. Frank J. Jirka, 2358 Marshall boulevard, were just good friends before the war.

Then one afternoon during the war Miss Cermak, returning from Florida with her parents, "stopped over" for a day at Chattanooga, Tenn. Dr. Jirka was there—a lieutenant in the medical corps. It may have been the uniform. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Cermak announced the engagement.

CITY TO OFFER ITS PROPERTY TO EVICTED TENANTS

While the city hastened to alleviate the condition of hundreds of families evicted from their homes the government started investigation yesterday of profiteering landlords for alleged fraudulent tax returns.

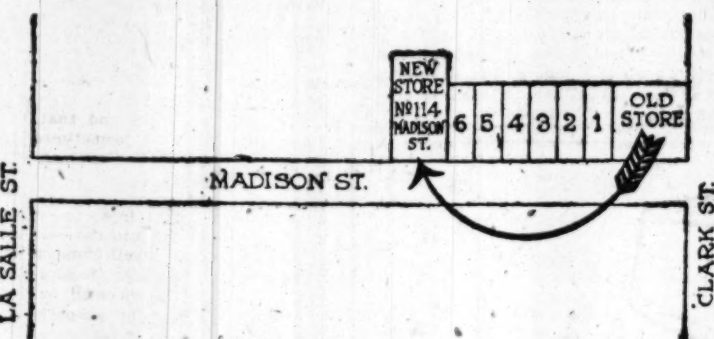

Turning over of vacant city property to the uses of those evicted was urged by Ald. Joseph O. Kostner, chairman of the council buildings committee; Edward Kaindl, who introduced a resolution on the subject in the council, and Robert Mulcahey, former head of the high rents committee, who has collected a large amount of data on this subject.

The government is now checking up the returns made by all landlords of the city. Harry Bittling, special investigator from Washington, arrived here yesterday to assist Chief Deputy Field Collector Thomas O'Brien in his investigation of the tax returns of profiteering landlords.

Many, it is said, fail to report amounts received for rentals on certain properties corresponding to the amounts which tenants' returns show were paid out.

YOUTH BLUECOAT SHOT CONFESSES FIFTY ROBBERIES

Lying in the Fort Dearborn hospital, with his left hip shattered by a policeman's bullet, Paul Chamille, a 21 year old graduate of the Pontiac reformatory, confessed to Acting Capt. Ben Enright of the Fifth street station yesterday afternoon that he had participated in more than fifty robberies and burglaries from Rogers Park to Englewood.

PAUL CHAMILLE.

He named two accomplices, for whom search is being made. The police refuse to divulge their names. Chamille, who lives at 4627 South Marshfield avenue, was paroled from the reformatory last October to Edward C. Heniff, 4957 South Racine avenue, after serving nearly two years for larceny.

PATROLMAN LEO CARR.

He was shot by Patrolman Leo Carr Wednesday night while fleeing after he and a companion had attempted to hold Carr up. Carr was wearing citizen clothes, and the pair did not know he was a police officer. A belt containing thirty-one cartridges and a revolver were found in Chamille's possession.

He is the second robber to fall victim to a bullet through mistaking a policeman of the Fifth street station for a citizen.

Two weeks ago Sergt. Maurice O'Connell of the same station was quicker on the trigger than Leo Wilde, a 19 year old bandit, and the latter was killed.

Chamille first said his accomplice was Joseph Kubinsky, 6321 Wentworth avenue, but detectives found this address is a factory.

Not only did he compel her to carry coal and water for him, but when she remonstrated he locked her out of the house, she alleges in a divorce bill filed yesterday. They live in North Aurora. They were married in Chicago Nov. 8 last. Now he has courted her, she deposes.

CIVILIAN GUARD BEING FORMED IN MEXICO CITY

not deliver the power conferred upon me until the revolutionists have been defeated, and then only to whoever shall be legally designated to succeed me.

"As president I call on all officials and all classes for support; upon all soldiers in the armies of revolt who, when they learn the true situation in the country and the goal to which their ambitious chiefs would lead them, will be given an opportunity to rectify their attitude and return to the aid of the legal government.

"I call also upon the army, which has remained loyal, to refuse to listen to the promises of those who wish them to rebel.

"Finally, I appeal to the Mexican people to furnish new troops to aid the legally constituted government, support the principles of democracy and prevent a repetition of the Huertista Diaz-Madero situation.

"Let the people determine that those who yesterday pretended to be their defenders shall not be permitted, with the aid of firearms, to dictate their new leaders."

Oregon Formally Joins Revolt.

San Antonio, Tex., May 6.—Lieut. Cal Alvaro Oregon has formally joined the Mexican revolution in the state of Sonora and has placed his forces at the disposition of the revolution. In a manifesto Oregon called on the Mexican people to rally to the support of the revolt against President Carranza and denied that he was seeking presidential power.

Oregon declared in the manifesto that when he consented to become a candidate for the Mexican presidency he believed the political campaign would be "developed in absolute conformity to law," but facts have transpired which have "brought us face to face with the most sorrowful of realities."

President Carranza, the manifesto charges, has attempted to make the "national army a whip lash at the service of his sole political judgment and disgrace, intrigue, and calumny have gravitated around the members of said army."

Oregon concludes his manifesto with this declaration: "It is not by the road of violence that I seek to reach power and I declare solemnly that I will subordinate myself absolutely to the citizen constitutional governor of Sonora."

REPORT PUEBLA TAKEN

El Paso, May 6.—Puebla, one of the largest cities of Mexico, was reported to have been captured by revolutionary forces under Gen. Pablo Gonzales, in a message to La Patria, a Spanish language newspaper here.

An advance detachment of Gen. Angel Flores, revolutionary commander in Sinaloa, has come into contact with the federal forces, which have been driven toward La Cruz, where another engagement is expected.

Railroads Are Cut.

Washington, D. C., May 6.—The cutting of railroads in Mexico continues, according to official and unofficial reports. The best information available indicated interruption of traffic over the railroads between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, Puebla and Pachuca, and the main lines north to Torreon and west to Guadalajara.

Unconfirmed advices said the Carranza garrison at Torreon had revolted and that the city was in control of the revolutionists. Other advices said no trains were being permitted to leave Mexico City.

Advices through official channels said Gen. Gonzales, Sidorio Mendez, and Manuel W. Gonzales had joined forces southeast of Mexico City and were preparing to repel any attack by Carranzista forces.

On the Pacific coast advancing patrols of Gen. Flores in Sinaloa defeated a Carranza force which was defending Abasco and La Cruz. The Carranza force fled after suffering a number of casualties.

CORRUPT POLITICS HAMPERS POLICE, THRASHER SAYS

It corrupt politics would keep its hands off the police department and Chief Garrity were given a fair chance, I believe the department would function effectively.

The above will be the keynote of the annual report to be tendered the Committee of Fifteen by Supt. Samuel P. Thrasher at the yearly meeting in the Hotel La Salle Monday night. Ex-President Taft will speak.

Supt. Thrasher's report details the ebb and flow of vice waves in the city during the last year.

"During the early summer last year vice was under reasonable control, but a demoralized condition developed in the police department of which the vice promoters seemed to take advantage," he declared.

"The reports of our investigators and complaints which come into our office indicate clearly that vice promoters are active and hopeful, and it will require renewed energy and increased activity on the part of the Committee of Fifteen and other agencies to check the increase in vice."

GAERTNERS JOG APART AS COURT CUTS THE REINS

Bride Path Love Ends;
Sleuth Army Jobless.

The bride path romance of William Gaertner, 5474 Hyde Park boulevard, and Mrs. Belle Overbeck Gaertner, former cabaret singer, ended yesterday in Judge McDonald's courtroom.

They had been in court before, Mrs. Gaertner, it was said, had divorced her first husband less than a year before marrying Gaertner at Crown Point three years ago. Gaertner, a manufacturer of scientific instruments at 44 Lake Park avenue, had sued for annulment, but just as the marriage was about to be severed they were married again and once more took the bride path at Jackson park.

The House of Sleuths.
Several weeks ago Gaertner filed a suit asking a divorce. It developed that both had hired so many detectives that their boulevard home was besieged, and life was just one sleuth after another.

Mrs. Gaertner did not contest the suit yesterday, although she was represented in court by Attorney Charles E. Erb. In answer to questions by the attorney, Benjamin R. Epstein, Jr., Gaertner testified concerning his operations as a detective.

"My wife has been away from me for three years," he said. "She told me she had stayed at the home of women friends."

On the night of April 20, with W. C. Dannenberg and others, I trailed her to 5345 Prairie avenue, where we found her with a man who said he was Edward Lusk.

He Hides Behind Door.
"Where was Mr. Lusk?"
"Behind a door," said Mr. Gaertner. "By an agreement contained in the divorce, Mrs. Gaertner is to receive $3,000 and certain household furniture, including a billiard table, in full settlement of her property rights."

DUNNE TO TAKE MARSH CASE TO SUPREME COURT

The Illinois Supreme court will be asked within the next few days to decide as to whether Henry Anthony Marsh, infant son of Henry Field and Miss Peggy Marsh, pretty London actress, is to have a share in his father's estate, according to former Gov. Edward F. Dunne, at item guardian of the boy.

Mr. Dunne returned yesterday from London, where depositions in the case were taken.

On March 14, Judge Denis E. Sullivan of the Superior court, before whom the case was first argued, ruled against the claims of Miss Marsh and her son.

"There is no question, and has been none," ex-Gov. Dunne said yesterday, "that the boy is the son of Henry Field. My client does not desire publicity, however, and outside of the filing of the appeal there is nothing new which I can tell."

"We are going to ask the Supreme court to decide this question, our claims not having been sustained in the Superior court. We contend that as the son of Henry Field, Henry Anthony Marsh is entitled to a major share of his father's estate."

GIRLS OF LEGION SIGN 'RED' FABER AND BALL FANS

The beauty battalion of the American Legionette invaded Comiskey park yesterday, captured Urban ("Red") Faber, White Sox pitcher, and made him a legionnaire. Miss Evelyn Weaver, 4488 Keokuk avenue, induced Faber to sign. They would have captured Tris Speaker, Indian chief, had he not been pledged to a Cleveland commandery. "Buck" Weaver had promised a north shore buddy he would join his post. Several score fans put on the Legion rosette. The member seeking legionettes were headed by Mrs. Arnold Joerns, president of Lake View Woman's auxiliary, and Mrs. J. A. Henley of the Hyde Park hotel, assisted by Miss Harriet Jacobs.

A 3-Block Walk out of the Loop for Better Clothes Values

WHY HIGHER PAY FAILS TO MEET LIVING COSTS

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Reduced output is a loaded rock with which industry is unwittingly handicapping itself. High wages are better than low wages unless they get the earner more and the lower the worker cuts his day's production the more he helps to slice off his day's wage when he goes to the market to exchange it for goods.

There's nothing new in this—any one can see with half an eye that the measure of wages is what the pay envelope will get you and how much "value" is left after the necessities of life have been bought.

Some interesting figures have just been compiled by the National Association of Sanitary Woodwork Manufacturers. They show actual cost of production figures from the members of this organization, who have some 12,000 or 15,000 employees.

Wages Doubled; Output Sags. As compared with 1916, the production efficiency of employees during the first three months of 1920 ranged from 40 per cent to 75 per cent. The weight of average was 64 per cent. In other words, there was a reduction in individual output of 36 per cent.

Wages in the industry since Jan. 1 have increased between 12 1/2 per cent and 25 per cent. The average increase in wages for the trade was 21 per cent. During the last four years the average annual increase in wages has been about 10 per cent.

Using round comparisons for convenience, wages have doubled while output has sagged one-third. But the labor costs in the articles produced have jumped twice as high as wages themselves, and the costs, of course, go into the bill before the final price as the public is put on the tag. And as profits, generally speaking, go on a percentage basis, the more the article costs the larger the profit and the harder the wallop handed the consumer.

DRESDEN CHINA DOLL DANCER TO APPEAR AT ACTORS' BENEFIT

Olivia, the little daughter of Attorney Charles Erbstein, will do her bit for sick and unfortunate actors Sunday afternoon at the Colonial theater. She will present her dance, "The Dresden China Doll," as a feature of the program, under the auspices of the American Theatrical Hospital association. Stars of the stage also will do their turns.

The proceeds of the benefit will go to the fund for sick and penniless players, of whom the association cared for 147 last year.

Some Startling Figures.

The following comparative table will serve to illustrate how labor costs are outstripping wages in the sanitary woodwork trade, due to a slump in output:

	Wages.	Production.	Labor cost per article or unit
1916	$1	2 units	$ .33 1-3
1920	$2	2 units	1.00

Increase...100% Dec. 83% Inc. 200%

In other words wages have doubled, but labor costs have trebled.

Carry that process throughout industry in general, through the steel and iron business, the building trades and the manufacturing branches, and one gets a picture of how industry as a producer, by lessening output, puts a crimp in its own wages, when industry goes shopping as a consumer. Wages have to be paid out of something, and although no labor means no goods, no profits mean no work. The way to increase the purchasing power of wages is to produce more and thus increase the number of articles and decrease the amount of profit each article must carry.

There is a wide variation in the amount of slump in output. For example in the jewelry trade the drop, so far as the higher grades in the craft go, is estimated at between 10 and 15 per cent. These are highly skilled workers, who drew large pay, according to their proficiency. Chicago has a reputation in the making of highest grade jewelry. In the platinum end, for instance, its output surpasses that of Paris in fineness—the European market is not nearly so critical as the American market. In the last four years, according to per cent.

trade authorities, wages in general have increased about 100 per cent, perhaps a bit higher, while the efficiency of the jewelry workers has fallen perhaps 10 per cent. Some of them produce as much as in 1916, while some fall 25 per cent under, much depending upon the characteristics of the individual. Hours of employment, too, have been decreased from fifty-four to forty-four, or a reduction of about 20 per cent.

'UNKNOWN' BEATS MIKE O'DOWD FOR MIDDLE TITLE

Tribune Decisions

Decisions of The Tribune fight representatives are:

At Boston—Johnny Wilson beat Mike O'Dowd and won middleweight title [12].

At Madison, O.—Willie Beecher beat Dave Nelson [10].

At Philadelphia—Fugate Lee beat Charlie Rose [12]. Harry Kane beat Willie Allen [12]. Willie McCloskey and Billy Wolfe fought draw [8]. Jimmy Laveland beat Young Joe Bradley [16].

Boston, Mass., May 6.—[Special.]—Johnny Wilson, a sou'wester boxer of Charlestown, the new middleweight champion of the world. He won the title tonight by defeating Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, and was awarded the referee's decision.

The verdict met with the approval of a capacity crowd.

The defeat of O'Dowd was a big surprise for Wilson, who has been boxing no better than second rate boxers in New England cities. He is young in the game, but he demonstrated tonight that he is a great fighter. Wilson had a clear shade in nine of the twelve rounds, while O'Dowd showed rallies in the ninth and tenth sessions which he earned by fair margins. The seventh round was even.

Knockdown in Second.

Wilson pulled a thriller in the second round when he scored a clean knockdown. He caught O'Dowd coming in with a straight right hander to the chin and the St. Paul man went to the canvas. Mike stayed down for a count of four, then got up and continued his rushing tactics.

O'Dowd was the aggressor throughout the contest, but he found Wilson's left handed way of milling puzzling. The Charlestown man was able to score repeatedly with his right and his left jab seldom missed the nose for which it was aimed. O'Dowd seemed at first to be making a put out, but he couldn't fathom Johnny's style of scrapping.

Travel Fast Pace.

The pace set by the men was fast and at the end of the twelfth round both were unsteady on their feet.

When the song sounded for the end of the twelfth round and Referee MacInnis pointed to Wilson's corner in token of the local boy's victory O'Dowd protested the decision, claiming he was entitled to a draw at least. MacInnis was the choice of O'Dowd's manager for referee.

O'Dowd had held the title for nearly three years, winning it from Al McCoy on Nov. 14, 1917, in New York, when he knocked out McCoy in six rounds.

RECORD FIELD OF 20 ON EDGE FOR KENTUCKY DERBY

Louisville, Ky., May 6.—[Special.]—The hard training season for the pick of American 3 year olds which will contest in the $50,000 added Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday ended today. Only light gallops intended to keep the high class thoroughbreds on edge will be indulged in tomorrow.

Present indications point to a field of twenty horses, and this will be the first time in the history of the noted race that more than sixteen went to the post. Never before were derby horses better trained.

Cleopatra and David Hdrum, which will carry the colors of W. R. Coe, furnished the best workouts of any of the candidates for the big race today, the former reeling off one and one-quarter miles in 2:06 4-5, while the latter went the distance in 2:07 1-5.

On Watch ran a mile and one-eighth in 1:56. Golden Broom was sent one and one-eighth miles in 1:56 4-5.

Trainer Jimmy Rowe announced that John P. Crier will be an absentee from the Derby, and that Jockey Eddie Ambrose will ride Damask.

BIRD NOTES.

MOST Americans will find it hard to believe that these United States have declared war on the American eagle. Up in Alaska some men are raising foxes for the fur market and others are raising live stock, many of them on public lands. They sent fearful complaints to the government, and finally the biological survey not only granted them permission to kill eagles but also permitted a bounty of 50 cents a head to be put on them, to encourage Indians and others to kill as many as possible.

Some folks in Washington, as well as the biological survey, ought to be reminded once more that the American eagle, claws, beak, and all, and not the turtle dove or bethrich, is the emblem of these United States.

The eagle is a predatory bird by nature. He lives mostly on fish and small animals, such as the hare, no doubt he takes at times fawns, young mountain goats, and sheep until these are killed off by the settlers, when he makes an occasional foray and grabs a domestic lamb or perhaps a domestic fox. This, it seems to us, is the problem of the men raising these sheep and foxes and not of the government of the United States.

According to a writer in the Saturday Evening Post bounties have been paid on 6,000 eagles in Alaska, and the slaughter goes merrily on.

U. S. TRANSPORT SOUGHT TO CARRY OLYMPIC TEAM

New York, May 6.—Members of the American Olympic committee will appear before the house committee on military affairs in Washington next week to plead for the use of a government transport for the United States team which will compete in the Olympic games at Antwerp next August.

According to a statement tonight by Gustavus T. Kirby, president of the Olympic committee, commercial steamship travel conditions are such that it is doubtful if a really representative team can be sent to Belgium unless government assistance can be obtained.

Tentative transportation has been booked for a portion of the team on a boat sailing from this port on July 24, but the committee has no positive assurances that accommodations will be available for the number of athletes required to compete in the long program prepared for the international meet.

Several Matching pieces, with which the Beds mentioned above could be used: Bureau, $75; Chest of Drawers, $65; Dressing Table, $65.

Several Triple-Mirror Dressing Tables, all finishes, one of a kind only, $45 each.

In Walnut—Two Vanity Dressers, with long center mirror, each, $85.

One Set only—one Twin Bed, one Chiffonrobe, one Dressing Table, the set, $195. This is Berkeley and Gay Furniture, and the price is very low.

In Mahogany—Full-size Bed, $56. Berkeley and Gay Chest of Drawers, $83.

All these pieces for immediate delivery only.

Inexpensive Queen Anne Set

This Dining Set in brown mahogany consists of 7 pieces—Table, Armchair, and five side Chairs. The Table extends to six feet—it has a 54-in. top. The Chairs, with shaped backs, have a double panel of good cane, and are covered in blue haircloth. There is only a limited quantity at this price, which is very low, quality considered; seven pieces, $225.

Eighth Floor.

Diversity Is Permissible in Living Rooms

A CERTAIN amount of liberty in arranging various types of Furniture design is almost a necessity in a comfortable living room. For instance, the very comfortable mahogany and Cane Chair which has cushions and a spring seat in velours, ($79) may be used to good effect with the upholstered pieces.

The Chaise Longue, in blue sateen, is $69. The Armchair, to match, is $39. A Day Bed in black or blue and gold enameled (not shown), $65. A Sofa to match the Armchair is $179.

CORN HITS $2.00 MARK ON YELLOW, MAKES NEW TOP

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Grain prices were lowest at the start and highest about the close, with all deliveries of corn and July oats at new high figures on the crop. Excellent weather conditions over the west, with better crop reports, induced considerable local pressure early. On the break strong commission houses absorbed the surplus in the pits and prices started upward. Stop loss orders were caught at $1.71 for July corn, and had it not been for profit taking and selling against offers the upturn might have been larger.

Corn had a range of 4/8¢ to 1/2¢ and oats 3/8¢ to 1/2¢ for the day, closing within a fraction of the top. Corn gained 1/8¢ on the deferred futures and 1/4¢ on May while oats were up 1/8¢, rye 1/4¢, and barley 1/4¢.

May Corn Touches $1.88.
May corn showed increased congestion and touched $1.88 on the bulge, or 11¢ under the outside figure paid in the sample market for No. 2 yellow, close of a spread between May and July was responsible for part of the advance. The strength in the May and in the cash more than offset weather conditions and reports that planting was getting under way in Illinois and Iowa.

Oats declined 1/8¢ early on weather and crop reports, but the strength in corn proved too much for the bears, and they had to cover. May was inclined to lag from the start, being under pressure from scattered longs.

The railroad situation was somewhat better, more switching being done, and eastern lines furnished a few cars at local elevators. There is a decided disposition on the part of producers to sell corn and oats to interior elevators, corn shellers running in parts of Illinois. A purchase of 15,000 bu corn was made to arrive at May price.

Rye Balles After Break.
Profit taking in rye was a factor in making a lower price early, but the strength in other grains led to a sharp rally that carried May up to within 1/8¢ of the highest figures on the crop. Sea-board demand slow, but there were bids somewhat below a working basis. A small lot of rye was sold at 60¢ over May, with sales at 20¢ to 25¢ over May, with sales at 21¢ to 24¢. Receipts, 3 cars.

Barley was unchanged to 1/8¢ higher, with sales at 11¢ to 12¢, the latter a new high on the crop. Receipts, 18 cars.

Packers Buy Lard.
Good buying of May and July lard by the Armour interests, who also took bids, together with higher hogs and a better domestic demand for lard and meats from the east and south, carried prices higher, the close being around the top, with lard up 2¢ to 4¢, ribs 5¢ to 6¢, and distant futures up 3¢ to 4¢, while pork gained only 1¢.

A feature was a better inquiry for meats from the continent, with reports of 3,000,000 lbs fat backs sold to Roumania. Prices follow:

CASH GRAIN N. E. W. S.

Shipping sales of cash grain at Chicago Thursday were 1,000 bu corn and 44,000 bu oats.

Seaboard bids for cash wheat were advanced 4¢ to the basis of $3.20 at the Gulf and $3.05 at the Pacific. The latter was some sold at the latter figure. Duluth sold 50,000 bu durum, and was a buyer of springs at Minneapolis. Prices in the latter market advanced 5¢ to 1¢ on a new high on the present up turn. No receipts at Chicago.

Offerings of cash corn were small and with a fair demand prices advanced 1/8¢, with a car of No. 2 yellow sold at $2 by the Armour Grain company, the highest price on the crop. Oats unchanged to 1¢ lower, with premiums lower. No. 3 white at the last were 1/8¢ over May.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

A meeting of grain men, bankers, farmers, millers, and all others interested in the grain trade is to be held at 11 o'clock today at the La Salle hotel. Julius H. Barnes, wheat director, has called it to discuss the reopening of the trading in wheat for future delivery. The general feeling favors an early opening as conditions will permit. It is a broad economic proposition.

Large eastern operators and a few local ones of significance who have been against the corn market were credited with taking the long side and absorbing the offerings on the break. Their buying was through a number of big houses with eastern connections and was attributed to a cotton trader, while one large local operator used one of the houses. It was said at the last that the technical situation was weakened by the late advance to new levels. At the same time it was argued that the latter was more of a bullish than bearish factor. Most operators are afraid to take a decided position on either side and have been for a week, but prices have advanced.

Argentine government officials announced that it has no intention of placing an embargo on the exportation of wheat at the present time. It estimates that there are 100,000,000 bushels of wheat in the country. Broomhall's agent, however, says only around 74,000,000 bu are left, and if present volume of clearances is continued the surplus will be exhausted by the end of June. Since Jan. 1 clearances have aggregated around 100,000,000 bu, an unusual movement.

One of the best posted New York grain men wired: "Exporters are after rye every day. Big orders are below the market waiting for your bears to break through, but they cannot do it. A Baltimore man here says he is selling some rye, but foreigners are trailing behind the market. They have got to come up to sellery views to get it."

McKenna & Dickey have taken over the grain shipping and elevator business of C. L. Dougherty & Co. who retire. They have also bought their elevator at Madison, Ill. This gives them two houses at that point.

The Canadian wheat board has issued instructions to Canadian eastern terminal elevators to refuse to unload ships from American ports unless permits are obtained from the board.

Flour stocks in leading cities May 1 were 897,000 bbls, compared with 820,000 bbls last month and 650,000 bbls last year. The principal holdings are at Philadelphia and Duluth.

May deliveries yesterday were 250 bbls mess pork, 600,000 lbs lard, and 550,000 lbs short ribs. The Anglo company paid for the lard and ribs.

Mandel Brothers

Frock shop, fourth floor

Continuing the drive for lower prices by selling women's and misses' summer

frocks of figured cotton georgette for extremely little money

—particularly considering that the frocks are in the season's advanced silhouettes, and captivatingly set off with embroidered organdy, batiste or lace collar, cuffs and vestee.

A variety of novel designs, printed on 17.75 navy and other dark colored grounds.

The three fascinating styles pictured are typical of a much larger number, becoming to miss and matron. Popularly-priced frock shop, fourth floor, Wabash avenue.

Continuing the drive for lower prices with

misses' coats and wraps at $55

—considerably below early-season quotations

Coats and wraps that fulfill the most exacting demands of fashion and service, variously developed in wool velours, tinsel-tones, camel's hair, polo and novelty wool fabrics; short, three-quarter and full length models; plain or fancy silk lined.

Misses' section, fourth floor.

Continuing the drive for lower prices with

women's and misses' spring suits at two interesting quotations

Two unusual groups of distinctive styles, each comprising exceptional values, judged by the accepted standards of styles and qualities.

Women's and misses' exclusive suits at $85

Reproductions and adaptations of spring's most distinctive models, developed in superior quality tricotone or poiret twill, superbly tailored, and with jackets beautifully silk lined; many elaborate with braid or silk floss embroidery; all made to sell for considerably more than $85. Two styles sketched.

Fourth floor.

Continuing the drive for lower prices with ### a sale of boys' two-trouser suits —extra special—at 17.50

Radical savings on smart norfolk suits in brown, green or gray mixtures; coat alpaca or serge lined; trousers full cut and full lined; sizes for boys of 7 to 17 years.

Second floor.

500 pairs feather pillows at $7 pair

—of an unusually good grade; electrically treated and sterilized; size 21½ to 27½ inches; soft and downy; in plain or fancy art ticking.

200 pairs of pillows for summer homes; clean and dustless; at 2.95 pair. Eighth floor.

Featuring hair mattresses, made in our own sanitary workroom; thoroughly sterilized.

Emphasizing the modish charm of toast tinted net blouses featured at 4.50

Delightfully novel blouses, becomingly fashioned of cool net in the new toast tint, and priced very attractively.

Two models: one attractively frilled and adorned with val. lace; the other a "slipover" with round collar, val. lace trimmed. See the sketch. Blouse shop, third floor.

Voile blouses, slightly soiled, now 1.50 —in several smart styles and reduced more than half.

Continuing the drive for lower prices with a sale of girls' smart coats at 15.95--21.50--24.75

The three groups comprise coats in a wide range of wanted colors, fabrics and fashions; some in girls' sizes, 6 to 14; others in flappers' sizes.

Girls' Jap crepe smocks, 3.95

—in attractive colors, and 6 to 12 year sizes. Fourth floor.

Continuing the drive for lower prices with a sale of women's and misses' new checked worsted skirts at a new low price

—lower, indeed, than any we have seen this season on skirts at all like these.

Accordion plaited—12.75—knife plaited

The full plaiting allows a free step, while imparting modish slenderness. The skirts are in brown-and-tan, blue-and-tan or green-and-tan checks, and in the two swagger models pictured. Fourth floor.

Mandel Brothers

Men's shop, second floor

A sale of seasonable interest to golfers:

Norfolk coat and knicker suits for less than the lowest price

that you have seen on golf attire of equal excellence. Second floor.

Suits of tweed and crash in homespun effects

at $25

The coats are made with "free play" shoulder, that allows for a full swing without binding or pulling the garment out of shape.

A novel idea is developed in norfolk jackets and knickers that harmonize in color and pattern—for example, black-and-white check coats with knickers of plain material are among the newer and smarter conceits.

Coats, 12.50. Knickerbockers, 12.50. You could scarcely do better.

Prolonging the life of old jewelry through artistic remodeling

If there is in your family any jewelry that is out of style, or broken, or worn out, you will be prudent to bring it to Mandel Brothers for that artistically correct remodeling which will add many dollars to its value and many years to its service.

Jewelry shop, first floor.

Skilled artists

will submit distinctive designs and suggestions, without charge; or will aid you in giving satisfying expression to your tastes.

Expert craftsmen

carrying out the artists' specifications, will accomplish for your jewelry a marvelous renaissance in beauty and effectiveness.

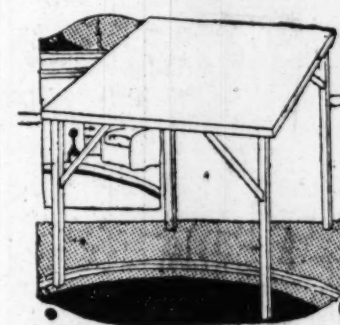

Last year some three thousand pieces of old-fashioned jewelry were remodeled here.

Furniture floor, the seventh

Continuing the drive for lower prices with a 2-day furniture clearance—odd pieces at substantial price reductions

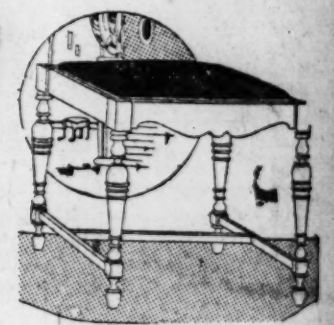

Furniture of all sorts and sizes adapted for the fulfillment of a host of home needs, is to be cleared at once. The pictured specials are typical.

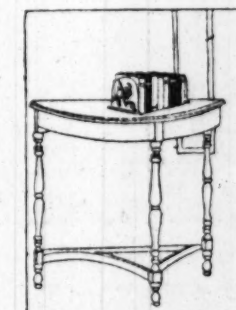

Folding card table, mahogany finish, with green felt top 30x30 inches; as illustrated above; at 2.50.

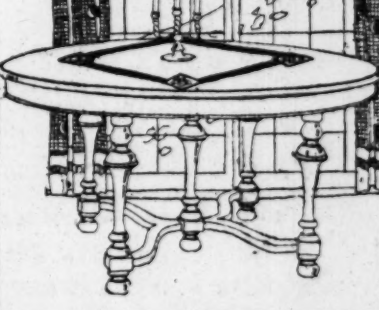

Reed fernery in old ivory brown, frosted brown or frosted blue finish; with 8x28-inch metal pan; 9.75.

Foot stools, mahogany finished, and covered in an assortment of velours and tapestries; at 4.95.

End table in mahogany finish, and in handsome Tudor style shown in the sketch; at 9.75.

William and Mary dining table, finished in walnut; table, 48-in. top, 6-ft. extension; 49.75. Seventh floor.

Sewing cabinet in priscilla style, finished in mahogany; a very useful article for any home; 7.95.

Fiber tea wagon, finished in old ivory; well constructed, cretonne lined removable tray; 16.50.

Queen Anne dresser of walnut—a high grade piece of furniture, beautifully designed and finished; 98.50.

Brown fiber rocker; spring seat construction, with loose cushion and plain fiber back; see cut; $11.

The extremely low prices render it prohibitive for us to accept mail, telephone or C. O. D. orders for the above.
